

Useful Websites for Parents

❖ <https://www.theschoolrun.com/school-life/curriculum>

The School Run website breaks down the information by both subject area and by school year making it easy to find information relevant to you and your child.

❖ <https://www.parentkind.org.uk/Parents/School-Curriculum-England>

Parentkind publish both online and in a helpful print magazine. They offer advice in all areas of school life. One particularly useful section is the 'Understanding Education' section on their website which breaks down the curriculum, key stages and levels.

❖ <https://www.gov.uk/national-curriculum>

The Gov.uk website includes a breakdown of the curriculum key stages and also explains the differences between types of schools, such as academies and private schools, and where they stand when it comes to the national curriculum.

❖ <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/at-school/>

The Oxford Owl website offers a series of Primary school year guides to help parents understand what their child will be learning in English and Maths, how they will be assessed and what tests they will take. As well as these explanations it is also full of useful resources for parents and children to use at home.

❖ <http://www.letters-and-sounds.com/>

Letters and sounds has lots of free phonics resources to support any children working through the phonics phases.

❖ <https://www.booktrust.org.uk/>

Book Trust is the UK's largest children's reading charity. The website has lots of recommendations, tips and advice.

❖ <https://www.thereaderteacher.com/>

Looking for book recommendations? The Reader Teacher has year group '100 reads' lists and book matching resources for those children that are stuck reading the same author or genre and are looking for something to try.

Useful Websites for Children

- ❖ Spelling Shed - Spelling Shed - Spelling game for school and home

Spelling Shed. Each child has an account with unique log-in details. These can be found in your child's home-school diary. There are a variety of games that be played to practise spelling rules that have been set by the class teacher.

- ❖ <https://www.lovereadings4kids.co.uk/kids-zone/>

Love reading for kids is a fantastic website for recommended reads and reading activities. There are extracts/opening chapters from lots of books so you can try before you buy.

- ❖ <https://spellingframe.co.uk/>

Spelling frame has games and activities split into year groups and spelling rules.

- ❖ <https://www.phonicsbloom.com/>

Interactive phonics games.

- ❖ <https://www.topmarks.co.uk/Search.aspx?Subject=9>

Top marks has a variety of Interactive English games.

- ❖ <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zv48q6f>

BBC Bitesize English has videos, quizzes and activities for all areas of the English curriculum.

- ❖ <https://games.vocabularyninja.co.uk/kids/>

Interactive spelling and grammar games